First Night – Mozart 250

Mozart's G minor Piano Quartet, the charming Flute Quartet, a selection of favourite songs, and a Mozartian modern premiere – the C major Piano Concerto in JB Cramer's masterly arrangement of 1836. On fortepiano and period instruments.

Jazz at Costa Coffee

Jazz piano and cabaret songs from Prague, London and New York, marking the centenary of the great jazz composer, Jaroslav Jezek, with his contemporaries, Gershwin, Kern, Cole Porter and Billy Mayerl.

A World Tour with Fritz Kreisler

The compositions of the famous Viennese violinist, with anecdotes of his career, played and told in geographical order by Ernst Kovacic, today's superb Viennese virtuoso.

'Less a terrestrial concert than an interstellar event.'

THE GUARDIAN

2 Murders & a Marriage

Three complete comic operas: one about Mozart, one by Mozart, and one that Mozart wished he'd written! Sold-out in the Buxton International Opera Festival, in Festivals in Edinburgh & Oslo, from Kent to Dorset – and snapped up by BBC Radio 3.

'The tribute Mozart himself would most have enjoyed.'

THE INDEPENDENT

Songs on a Sunday I:

The Heartbeat of the Shire

A Memorial Garland of Northamptonshire Songs by Trevor Hold (1939-2004): the song cycles The Image Stays, Voices from the Orchard, and River Songs. David Wilson-Johnson & David Owen Norris, who premiered and broadcast all the songs, are joined by Amanda Pitt.

Songs on a Sunday II:

All Pleasure's Fancies

Amanda Pitt sings Strauss's Four Last Songs; Mark Wilde gives the first performance of David Owen Norris's song-cycle Tomorrow nor Yesterday – six settings of John Donne; and traditional songs arranged by Roger Quilter, as heard on our recent Naxos CD.

Artists include: Ernst Kovacic, violin (Vienna), David Wilson-Johnson, baritone (Amsterdam), William Lyons, Emilia Benjamin, Louise Hogan, Jonny Byers (period instruments), Amanda Pitt, Mark Wilde, Mark Saberton, Thomas Guthrie, Victoria Small, Elizabeth Spencer, Bastien Terraz (opera), and David Owen Norris (Ganer Square Piano of 1781, Stein Fortepiano of 1790, Pleyel Grand of 1887, modern keyboards).
